

Staff

Staff was designed to be practical and versatile in its use of space. With its mechanical and dry look the design deviates slightly from the Neo-Grotesk tradition while subtly nodding to Venus-Grotesk. Stems are bent in rigid right angles, lining terminals are cut horizontally at the same height in different letters, crossbars and waists are forced into lining vertical positions and the same vertical metrics are shared by all weights.

Upon setting eyes on him, she immediately fell hopelessly in love. Falling was quite the right expression in her case, for this handsome young fellow was none other than the selfish, self-centred Narcissus. Unbeknownst to him, she then started following him through the woods, every time she found him hunting. One day he felt her presence and shouted, who's there? Poor Echo, spellbound has she was, could only
